

U.S. Citizenship Oath

The following is the oath taken by immigrants to the U.S. as they become naturalized citizens. Regardless of your status, is this an oath you can stand by? Highlight, circle, or underline any sections of the oath that might be problematic to you, if you were asked to declare your allegiance to the United States.

Abjure - solemnly renounce (a belief, cause, or claim)

I hereby declare, on oath, that I absolutely and entirely renounce and abjure all allegiance and fidelity to any foreign prince, potentate, state, or sovereignty, of whom or which I have heretofore been a subject or citizen; that I will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States of America against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I will bear arms on behalf of the United States when required by the law; that I will perform noncombatant service in the Armed Forces of the United States when required by the law; that I will perform work of national importance under civilian direction when required by the law; and that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; so help me God."
